

South Bay MCLE Series

Hosted by The Maloney Firm, APC

Eliminating Bias In Dispute Resolution

Thursday, December 11th

5:30 - 6:30pm

The Maloney Firm, APC
2381 Rosecrans Avenue
Suite 405
El Segundo, CA 90245

This program will explore how bias creeps into dispute resolution using an arbitrator's comments from a recent hearing. Patrick Maloney and Jayesh Patel will analyze the rules that require lawyers, jurors, arbitrators, and judges to avoid bias in the context of the diverse population of California. This presentation has been approved by the State Bar of California for 1.0 hour of MCLE credit, including 1.0 hour of Elimination of Bias.

Patrick M. Maloney
The Maloney Firm, APC
www.maloneyfirm.com

Jayesh Patel
Pumilia Patel & Adamec, LLP
www.pumilia.com

Space is limited. Please RSVP to Maria Maloney - mmaloney@maloneyfirm.com or (310) 347-4692. Light refreshments will be served. There is no cost to attend this presentation.

Save the dates for MCLE presentations in 2015

2015 Legal Update January 8th

Patrick Maloney and Ashley Tate will identify and discuss several new statutes addressing civil procedure, contract law, employment law, and tort law.

Enforcing Judgments February 12th

Collection attorney Jerry Jen will discuss the how to collect your hard earned judgments.

TechnoEthics March 18th

Mike Murray will discuss the ethical issues attorneys face as they adopt new technologies.

2381 Rosecrans Avenue, Suite 405 | El Segundo, CA 90245 | 310.540.1505